Clean Communication and Keen Creativity Monthly Tips

Topics: Improving Communication, Kick-Start Your Creativity, A Social Media Warning and More...

What happened to July?! The month flew by, and I haven't had a vacation yet! Of course, it's been so hot in Texas that a reprieve in the temps may be considered vacation enough. And since I generally like avoiding the crowds, September is a great time for a break after the kids are back in school and folks are back at work.

Here are July's posts at <http://blog.MichelleZavala.com>. Click "Leave a Comment" at the top of each entry to give your thoughts. Or if you'd like to share a post with others, just click on the icons/links at the bottom of each entry. Thanks for Reading!

A Social Media Caveat for Consideration

Don't let social media run off your site or blog visitors! Wise placement of social media options can benefit you in the long run.

A Creative Journey Awaits

Everyone is creative, and The Artist's Way is an excellent primer for artists and non-artists alike. Positive change results when you become your true creative self.

Communicating with Low Talkers and Self Talkers Can Be Funny...and Revealing

Remember the Low Talker on Seinfeld? (The Puffy Shirt episode) I had a Low Talker/Self Talker keep me on my toes at a local office supply store. But I have to admit, I talk to myself all the time...

Missing Walter Cronkite...

Walter Cronkite played an integral role when I chose journalism as a college major. It was an honor to go to his alma mater and meet him. Goodbye to one of the greatest communicators of our time.

Three Tips to Help You Communicate Better with Loved Ones

Here's a great example of how we can all learn from one man's focus on communicating well with loved ones.

Improving Communication Begins with a Decision

Prioritizing and deciding to become a better communicator -- how small changes make big differences.

Wishing you a Refreshing and Productive Day,
